THANK YOU for being a friend to this ministry and the giving of your prayers and support!

PERSONAL MESSAGE

A Bit of Wisdom

Thank you for faithfully praying and giving. Your partnership with The Voice in the Wilderness has enabled this faith mission to help with Bibles in Kenya, reach almost half of the goal for Venezuela, print another issue of The Voice in the Wilderness publication and preach several meetings in the U.S. Praise the Lord and Thank You for being a vital part.

Here is an update on Venezuela:

Continue to pray, and give if possible, to the ministry needs in Venezuela. Pastor Estelvio just contacted with praises of many salvations in this new four-month old church! Pastor Elton is excited to see many new people come to Christ and be baptized, and he also requests prayer for five men who are leading different visitation routes. Pastor Josue and the four-year old church said "Glory to God" in praise for 1,000 people attending their anniversary service with 50 people accepting Christ. Please hold up these pastors and churches in your prayers as they strive to win their countrymen for Christ. (See more at right)

Pray for a bit of wisdom in the Church! There seems to be an epidemic ravaging the minds of far too many in the church. A compulsion to blabber and blubber all over the world a 24/7 incessant barrage of personal extravagances. Our "selfies," steakhouse dinings, shopping indulgences and amusement park lifestyles are recorded on devices around the world. Faithful national missionaries in dangerous, deprived conditions view their American churchettes via Facebook and other social party communication daily posts of perpetual foolish frivolities. The world will be the world. Worldlings are worldly. But for our dear precious brothers and sisters around the world to constantly see and hear in real time their kinfolk in the U.S. engaged in such constant carnality is reprehensible. May God help us and Apologies from America.

Pray for us!

Apologies From America

Over the miles, and even across the sea
They watch this home of the brave - land of the free.

No, not the stock market or Hollywood stars
Not the athletes or our expensive cars
Nor the fancy homes and clothes galore
Or all the amenities from shore to shore.

I'm talking religion, or still better yet
The church, the Christian - for they have met.
It's not true, this "One nation under God"
It's not real, just a form and fake facade.
What Bible and prayer - for could they hear
With that "rockin' rollin'" blare, O'dear?
HIS still small voice is just "drowned" out
Amid the crankin' amps and frenzied shout.

Their noise and dance - Moses' anger waxed hot
And today the church is full of stain and spot.
But is there hope with another "Missions Team"
Or is this the fad with a steady stream?
To take a group to visit the Hottentot
All dressed like the world when they are not.
And the missionary on field so far away
Must make excuse - to his people say,
Now we don't dress or sing like them
Our standard is to glorify HIM.
The Americans came, but we must pray
From the Book to the world do they stray!
Their material things and the world projects
They look and sound as the mirror reflects

A worldly age of music and dress
Looking for the new, and without rest.
But the MISSION is more than song and dance
More than travel with a helping chance
To lend a hand and do some good
But to glorify our Lord in all we should.
So APOLOGIES from AMERICA and just this plea,
Before you go over land and sea,
A Standard High when we consider others
May mean far more to our sisters and brothers.
For their custom and culture and Bible stand
Just may differ in their church and land.
