NEWS BITS

FROM HERE AND THERE

Pray for us!

The King James Bible Expo was without a doubt a once in a lifetime privilege and blessing. My family and I express appreciation to all involved. Think about this ... to stand on the U.S. Capitol steps and read through God's Word, set-up a display of the history and heritage of the English Bible, particularly the KJB, then to distribute thousands of Gospel witnesses through the John and Romans booklets across the D.C. area. If only all Bible-believing pastors and Christians could have been present for this historic event. Certainly there are many critical issues today facing the church, but if we do not get it right on the Book, "...what can the righteous do?"

I've enclosed a few photos of this great event. Continue to pray for the KJB Concurrent Resolution before the House of Representatives. There will be fruit yet to be seen as a result of the 2011 KJB Expo in our nation's Capital. Go online to read the May digital edition and watch your mailbox for the upcoming quarterly publication of The Voice in the Wilderness for more coverage on the Expo.
