MINISTRY UPDATE

Prayer Needs

The apostle Paul records in 1 Corinthians 16:9, "For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries."

Here we see Paul's:

1. Attitude
2. Access
3. Adversaries

Surely we believe every deed done, every effort made, every word spoken and every sacrifice given in Jesus name according to His will is without the mere of failure. Our generation has certainly faced some very difficult and challenging issues. The Voice in the Wilderness repeatedly has addressed these perilous times according to the scriptures. However, with great obstacles and opposition also come great opportunities. Did you know one person can make a difference? Did you know we should all try to make an eternal difference? Economically, politically, and religiously Paul faced great challenges in his ministry. Yet we see his attitude was one from an eternal perspective. The very words "a great door" describe the attitude of anticipation for the prospects of fruit despite all the negatives of his day. The apostle recognizes his access to God's power when he uses the word "effectual." His attitude is one of great opportunity and his recognition of access to God's power and promises upon the mission propels him ever forward. Then there is still the reality that many adversaries stand in opposition to Paul's efforts in ministry.

In July, we were privileged to teach and preach a special KJB Day in Durham, Kannapolis, and Concord and again to work with Bible Nation Society and Bro. Jason Georges in displaying the history of the King James Bible at a Bible Conference. There are only a few months left in this history making year of celebration in honor of the 400 years of heritage of The King James Bible. It is incumbent upon this generation to let your voice be heard as we stand on God's Word. In 1911, for the 300th KJB Anniversary, both President Taft and King George of England signed proclamations concerning the significance of the KJB. Now it is our time and waiting for House recognition is the Concurrent Resolution 38. In Christian duty and appreciation for God's Word please join with us:

- Call on your representative to vote for House Concurrent Res. 38
- Sign the KJB Declaration online - www.thevoiceinthewilderness.org
- Host a KJB Day at your church
- Order your Commemorative KJB lapel pin (contact our office).
