MINISTRY UPDATE

A Challenging Message

'Tis a little book - only 128 pages. The title is "The Challenge of Missions" by Oswald J. Smith. Within the pages are 18 small chapters telling of one man and one church obedient to take the gospel around the world. Herein is a "magnificent obsession" - to make Christ known to the whole world.

The Word is preached, souls are saved, a church set in order with native leadership, and on we go with the gospel. The church is self-supporting, self-propagating, and self-governing. That was the great missionary Paul's method. That is the New Testament way to evangelize the world.

The Voice in the Wilderness issues the challenge to God's men in India, the Philippines, Venezuela and around the world to go and preach the gospel of Jesus Christ. Teach the fundamentals and then go. Don't become classroom students with a foreign check in hand. Be a New Testament evangelist and go with the gospel. keep your job to pay the bills but go preaching the Word!

America will never produce enough "missionaries" requiring enormous sums of money, to go into every country, city, village, and by-way. But in every country there are saved men who can win their family and friends to Jesus.

In 2012, will you renew your prayers for The Voice in the Wilderness as we encourage our dear brothers around the world to go preach Christ. Please read and pray for the specifics listed in the "Pray for Us" column to the right. Also, be sure to participate in this year's Bible Study Challenge with CrossVue School of Missions - "Twenty Twelve Ways" - a study through the Ten Commandments.

Pray for us!
